Dear Parents and Guardians,

I hope you were able to attend the Spring Production of You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, this past Friday or Saturday. I had the pleasure of attending the 11:00 a.m. show on Saturday and was so impressed and enjoyed the performance immensely. Thank you, Dr. Menjivar and Mrs. Kuriger, for your tireless hours of prep and practice. Thanks to Mrs. Cayce and parents for your help with all things "drama related". Thank you drama students, both actors and stage crew, for your professionalism and dedication to your craft. Broadway may be calling :)

On Saturday, a number of our students represented St. Mary's Catholic School in the Diocesan Science Fair. Congratulations to all for representing our school so well: Stephan Galvez, Joshua Barkis, Waverly Stewart, Kelvin Duffy, Callista Kurek, Anna Fiala, Audrey Basile, Isabella Garza and Brisa Gonzales.

A special Congratulations to the following students who placed in the day's event.

Life Science: Alondra Arredondo-----1st Place

Earth Science: Kailey Flecha -----2nd Place

Isabella Kuriger-----3rd Place

Physical Science: Bryce Eichelkraut.-----Honorable Mention

Team Category: Nicholas and Thomas Bennett-----Honorable Mention

Thank you, parents, teachers, and students for creating such wonderful baskets for the Parish Festival Auction on Sunday. The creativity was fantastic. Thank you to our students who volunteered at the game booths and food areas. It was a fun day and a community builder.

I have heard from a parent or two that there are mistakes in the newsletter and the number of emails from the school is excessive. I would like to address these concerns to all parents and guardians, please.

The newsletter is written by me. I begin working on information the week before and ask my contributors to send me entries well ahead of time. This is not always the case. As well, important information is sometimes given after the newsletter has been sent, and waiting until the following newsletter will be too late, or an event is coming up and organizers ask us to send a reminder.

The newsletter is proofread by the office staff. Sometimes mistakes are missed and for that, I apologize. It is certainly unintentional and not due to our lack of communication skills. We will work harder to attend to both matters. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Please keep our 7th and 8th graders, teachers and chaperones in your prayers as they travel to fun and exciting destinations tomorrow. Our 7th graders will spend three days at Seaworld Adventure Camp while our 8th graders will spend 2 nights on the USS Lexington in Corpus Christi. I have no doubt both will be memorable.

Progress Reports will be sent home for Pre-K and Kindergarten, and open on RenWeb for all other grades, this Friday.

Remember Spirit Day this Thursday.

Thank you for all you do for the school.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Wyles

NEWS AND INFORMATION

Crawfish Boil

We have extended ticket sales until tomorrow. If you want a ticket and can't get to us by tomorrow call and we will reserve a ticket for you. We will need to take care of all shopping on Thursday. Remember, we will have hotdogs and nachos for those who do not like crawfish :)

We still need volunteers on this day. Please follow the link to sign up. (Volunteers must be 21 years old or older).
